

Emergency Vehicle Technician (EVT)

Millar Cameron is the global leader in recruitment for Emerging Markets, focusing on regions such as Africa, South America and the Middle East. Supporting the largest Support Services firms around the world in their operations we are always in search of new talent with specific skill sets.

At present we require an Emergency Vehicle Technician (EVT) to oversee a leading support service firm's operations in Afghanistan ensuring that all maintenance activities are carried out to the highest possible standards.

The Emergency Vehicle Technician (EVT) will have previous experience of working with emergency response vehicles, preferably working heavily with fire prevention apparatus.

The key responsibilities of the Emergency Vehicle Technician (EVT):

- Ensure that all policies and procedures are carried out effectively and adhering to all standards on site.
- Attend training courses to keep junior technicians up to date in the latest practises.
- Lead a multinational team of technicians providing them with training and overseeing their work keeping it to a high standard
- Manage all Planned Preventative Maintenance (PPM) schedules are carried out and any breakdown maintenance is prioritised correctly.

What our client can offer:

- Competitive salary package
- An opportunity to be a part of a leading company who are well established in the support service field around the world.

What we look for in excellent candidates:

- Must have experience of working with Emergency Response Vehicles is essential, experience with Ambulances and Fire & Rescue vehicles is preferable.
- Must have qualifications for working with specific Emergency Vehicles.
- Previous experience in Afghanistan will be looked upon favourably.
- Must be able to obtain a NATO Secret Security Clearance.
- At least 5 years of experience in an Emergency Vehicle Technician role or similar

If you feel that you fit these criteria and would be interested in learning more about our client's operations please send us your application, we will always take the time to look over every applicant but cannot guarantee a response for everyone.

If you have not heard back from us within 14 days of your application please assume that you are unsuccessful.

Please send all applications to sam@millarcameron.com and I will be in touch.