

Emergency Vehicle Technician (EVT) – KABUL INTERNATIONAL AIRBASE

We are looking for an Emergency Vehicle Technician who is responsible for all duties relating to Maintenance Activities on the Emergency Response Vehicles.

Dimensions:

The Emergency Vehicle Technician plays a key role in the following activities:

- Assimilating training requirements
- Following all safety standards and procedure
- Assimilating individual training as required to stay current on training requirements
- Insuring that all documentation regarding qualifications are met (employee competency) are made available to his Supervisor

Specific Accountabilities:

The Emergency response Vehicle Technician will carry out the following tasks:

- Insure that all mandated PPE is worn ;
- Insure that all HAZMAT regulations are read , and adhered to
- Insure that On the Job Training is completed (Signed Hard Copies and a Computer generated record on the specified software for future referral)
- Evaluate current training and identify training needs—the level of people's knowledge can vary greatly; onsite training sessions or manufactures factory training can be requested as required to enhance the knowledge levels of the Technicians.
- To attend coaching and mentoring sessions as required to develop his technical abilities and strong points
- Perform repairs and adjustments on Emergency Response Vehicles in accordance with regulations
- Identify and source parts and supplies required for all facets of repair and maintenance on Emergency Response Vehicles.
- Maintain work order and parts records on all maintenance activities.
- Maintain work order and parts records on all maintenance activities.

Educational & Experience Requirements:

The SPV Technician shall have the following knowledge, skills, and abilities:

- Good, working knowledge of all types of Emergency Response Vehicles to include: Fire & Rescue Vehicles, Ambulances.
- Five (5) years experience in the Emergency Vehicle Technician field.
- Five (5) years experience in identifying and sourcing Emergency Vehicle parts.
- Heavily Experienced with all types of electrical and electronic diagnostics and repair
- Proven team building participation
- Graduation from an accredited Technical training school or program as a fully certified technician in the field, preferably in the Emergency Vehicle Technician Field.
- Special certifications in Fire Apparatus (pumps, breathing apparatus etc) preferred.
- Adaptability to interact with different nationalities and cultures in the workplace

Package

TOTAL 75,000 USD per year (this is inclusive of all hazard pay and uplifts) – WE DO OFFER 3 MONTHS FULLY PAID LEAVE PER YEAR

I believe the hours are 60 hours per week.

Rotation of 3 months in country and 1 month out of country, this equates to 3 months paid leave a year.

Accommodation, Food, Laundry, Flights etc. are all provided.

If you are interested please can you complete and return the attached form and send me your updated CV/Resume as a word document to conor@millarcameron.com

PLEASE CONFIRM ON THE EMAIL THAT YOU HAVE A VALID PASSPORT AND MAKE SURE THE LAST 4 DIGITS OF YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY IS ON YOUR RESUME FOR VERIFICATION OF YOUR CERTIFICATES

Conor O'Callaghan
Millar Cameron

00 44 1235 856 036 (t)

00 44 1235 436 268 (f)

00 44 7920 119 334 (c)

conor_ocallaghan (Skype)

conor@millarcameron.com

<http://uk.linkedin.com/in/conoroc>

www.millarcameron.com

For regular updates on new vacancies follow us on Twitter - <http://twitter.com/MillarCameron>